CATTLE SUPPLY BEYOND DEMAND.

Prices Drifting Downward-Situation in

Buyers' Favor. SHEEP RUN LARGE-DEMAND ACTIVE

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, MONDAY, July 15, 1889. The situation is not a very favorable one for cattle dealers. Prices are off 10 to 20 cents from last week's rates. A leading drover said: "I sold as nice 1,500 to 1,600 pound cattle as the markets can produce at $4 40, for the reason that I could not get any person to give me more. The cost of these to me at the yards, when I count freight, hay, commission and shrinkage, cannot be less than 34 35.

You will readily see that I will get very little for my time, trouble and capital invested. "Herr's Island drovers have not been having very good pickings the past few weeks, and not a few have lost money on their operations." Cuttle. Supplies were in excess of demand and, except for smooth, light stock, weighing from 1,250 to 1,350 pounds, markets were slow at a drop of 10@15c from last week's prices. The drop of 10@15c from last week's prices. The best heavy Western cattle weighing 1,500 to 1,600 hs sold at range of $4.50@4 69; medium weights, 1,290 to 1,400 hs, $4.40@4 59; prime light weights, 900 to 1,100 hs, $3.75@3 75@3 50; common to fair thin and rough steers. $3.00@3 50. Fresh cows were in full supply and slow. There were tales ranging from $28.00@32 00. Caives were scarce and active at a range 5½@7c per h. Bulls, stags and heifers were quoted slow at 3c to 4c per pound.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were considerably larger than last weeks, but none too large for demand. Markets were active from the start, and everything desirable found ready buyers at full last week's prices. One carload of extra fine wethers were bought by Lowenstein & Ackerman for Eastern markets at 50 per pound. Both last week and this there have been heavy burchases of sheep at Herr's Island for East Liberty and eastern markets, and butchers complain that this has served to stiffen prices. Prime native wethers were quoted at $4 75 to $5 25, but nothing could be traced that brought above $5, and it required a first-class 115 pound wether to brung this figure. Common to fair sold at a range of $3 50 to $7 75; lambs 35-gc to 65-gc. Receipts from Chicago—L Zeigler, 115 head. From Ohio—L Langdeu, 56; A. Williamson, 141; J. Cruikshank, 137. There was practically no market. Demand from butchers is very light, and packers rarely buy at Herr's Island. Needy & Smith reported sales at a range of $4 25 to $4 50. Receipts from Chicago at 1,257; last week, 1,166; previous week, 1,662.

CATTLE FOR EUROPE,

Extensive Preparations for Shipment

Through the Whole Summer.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Arrangements have been completed for the exportation of an unusually large number of cattle within the next three or four months. Nelson Morris, the beavy cattle dealer of this city, has secured all of the vacant room on all of the outgoing steamers from New York for Liverpool, Giasgow and London for a period of two or three months. J. L. Hathaway, of Boston, and his syndicate have engaged all of the room on the steamers of the Warren line from Boston for the months of July, August, 14.80@15.00c; March, 14.90@15.10c; April, 15.00; May, It & Sugar—Raw entirely nominal, a anting offers and demands; fair refining, 7%c; refined steady and quiet. It will be ily seen that a vast number of cattle can andled during that time. Nearly all of be handled during that time. Nearly all of these cattle will be sent forward from here and some will go from Kentucky. The occasion of this foreign movement of cattle is the low price here and shortage of the European cattle supply and consequent high prices there. The export rates, however, are very much dearer than they were a year ago. At that time the rate to Liverpool and Glasgow from New York was from 36 to 40 shillings her head. The room just engaged was taken at the rate of 80 shillings to Liverpool and Glasgow and 90 shillings to Liverpool and Glasgow and 90 shillings to Liverpool and consignment of this season of range cattle arrived here this morning. ### MARKETS BY WIRE.

Wheat Strengthened by an Unexpected! Large Decrease in the Visible Supply-All the Options Close Fractionucts Kather Tame.

CHICAGO—A good speculative business was transacted in wheat to-day, and the market ruled rather strong, though there were occasional spurts of weakness. While last week the market declined on the prospects of liberal receipts of new wheat, it ruled steadier to-day on the possibilities that expectations may not be realized. At Minneapolis not more than half the quantity was received that had been talked about, and at St. Louis instead of 300,-000 bushels only 148,000 bushels were received. Out of 106 cars of wheat received here 78 cars were new and 58 cars of contract grade.

were new and 58 cars of contract grade.

It was feared that the movement might not be as free as expected early in the session and this induced some buying and covering of "shorts." The visible supply decrease exceeded expectations, and was a strengthening feature. The opening was $46%c higher than Saturday's closing; declined $46%c, then advanced %c; again ruled weaker and closed about $46%c higher than Saturday.

But little interest was manifested in corn, trading being light and fluctuations narrow, with most of the business confined to local operators. The feeling was steady, prices varying but little from Saturday's range, closing a shade

A fairly active business was transacted in mess pork at an irregular range of prices. Early the market was stronger, and opening sales were made at loc advance, which was followed by a further advance of 5c. Later the offerings were moderately free and a weak feeling was developed, accompanied with a reduction of 17%@50c. Toward the close the feeling was steadier and prices rallied 7% 10c, closing quiet.

A firmer feeling was manifested in the lard market. Opening sales were made at 5c advance, but the demand fell off and prices receded again, closing at about outside figures.

A little more life was exhibited in the market for short rib sides. Early the feeling was stronger and prices ruled 2% 65c higher, but the offerings were slightly cularged later and the advance was lost. The market closed quiet at outside figures. Oats were only moderately active and a shade

The appended remarks were written with reference to Philadelphia, but they apply with equal force and pertinency to Pittsburg: "The general feeling among the large operators in real estate and prominent builders, is to the effect that the business of this present year has been done on a sound financial basis, and that as a rule the building ventures represent but an average business risk, with very few cases where extra hazardous risks have been taken, and in these few cases it is a question of location only, which may yet prove very advan-

The largest building permit issued this year was taken out by Charles Lockhart yesterday for 50 houses on Dinwiddie street, at an estimated cost of $200 000. He will erect 28 houses on the mates that each dwelling will cost $4,000. This will help to fill a long-felt want in that part of the city. This good work should go on. If there were houses to accommodate the people Pittaburg's population would soon double.

A TYPICAL DAY.

The Midsummer Duliness Still Apparent at the Stock Exchange. Nothing was done at the morning stock call yesterday except making a few figures. There was less pressure to buy or sell than for some time, and the difference between bids and offers was in most cases too great to be settled by concessions, especially when neither side seemed at all apxious to do business. There was neither news nor gossip worth repeating.

In the afternoon there was a small movemen urday's figures. The list showed no particular changes in the bidding. A number of brokers and investors are absent on their vacations.

SOME IMPROVEMENT. The Oil Market Braces Up a Little, but Still

Below Par. Although the oil market yesterday was considerably below par, it was better than on Saturday, and as good as any day last week. Still, considerable dissatisfaction with the new rules was expressed, and it is probable, unless there should be a radical improvement in a short time, that the exchanges will be called upon to rescind them. A few stanch friends of the new system still hold out for it, however, and assert that when it becomes thoroughly understood by outsiders they will come in and lift the mar-by outsiders they will come in and lift the market out of the rut.

August oil fluctuated very little—seveneighths of a cent. The opening closing and lowest was 92 and the highest 92%. There was good buying in New York, but elsewhere trading was on a limited scale as compared with the good old times. Here the transactions amounted to about 300,000 barrels. One or two sales of cash oil were made at 93. Nothing was done in the September option. The scarcity of certificates is the principal obstacle to handling late months.

CONFIDENT FOREIGNERS.

They Entertain a Good Opinion of American Securities-London Quorations Move Up-Advances in the Majority at the Close.

New York, July 15.—The stock market to-day was quiet all the way out, but there was until the last hour a decidedly strong tone, which raised quotations to a materially higher level than those of Saturday. The improve-ment, however, brought in realizing sales and a large portion of the gains were lost. The a large portion of the gains were lost. The foreigners seem to have most confidence in the future of values for American stocks, and this morning the London figures showed material advances over prices of Saturday, and this responded to the improvement, which was helped along by liberal buying orders from abroad. There was no pressure to sell stocks, and while there was little demand the covering of shorts kept the upward movement going, but the loaning rates for stocks shows that there must have been a material reduction of the outstanding short interest in the past few days.

Opening prices here were generally from 1/2 to 3/2 per cent better than Saturday's closing figures, but Missouri Pacific was exceptional, with a gain of 1/2 per cent, induced by the reports that there were to be efforts made to improve the rates in the Southwest, and at the same time give them greater stability. The market remained quiet, though lead was active. The trusts all opened materially higher, sugar being up 11/2 per cent, but there was no movement of importance in the list until toward noon, when Chicago Gas, which had dropped from 5/2 to 5/6, suddenly shot up to 58%. Renewed inquiry for the Grangers, in which London was very prominent, resulted in an advance of 1/2 in Rock Island, while Burlington and the others gained fractional amounts.

After noon the general market was completely barren of feature, but the Big Four stock rose 2 per cent, and the new C., C. & 8t. L. preferred gained a like amount. The rest of the list, however, displayed steady strength, and the highest prices were reached toward 2 P. M. The realizations then began, and Atchison led off with a drop of 1 per cent, followed by 8t. Paul, Missouri Pacific and the trusts Sugar dropping 1/2. The market finally closed quiet but weak, with most stocks at close to the opening prices. The final changes are irregular, but advances are more numerous, and declines are for fractional amounts only, while Big Four is up 11/2 C., C. & St. L. preferred 11/2. Sugar 1/2 and Le foreigners seem to have most confidence in the future of values for American stocks, and this real estate transfers. It was in connection with the estate of Mrs. Isabella W. C. Comingo, with the estate of Mrs. Isabella W. C. Comingo, a widow, aged, feeble and a grand-daughter of Isaac Craig, prominent in the history of Western Pennsylvania. The Rev. W. B. C. Comingo, who was drowned while canoeing a year ago, was her only son.

Mrs. Comingo owned a large tract of land at Center avenue and Craig street, inherited from Center avenue and Craig street, inherited from her father, Neville B. Craig. In 1887, the Rev. Mr. Comingo, acting as her attorney in fact, laid out a large portion of the land in lots. About $25,000 worth of the lots were sold by Mr. Comingo, his mother giving the deeds. Subsequently, and as a direct outcome of the son's death, the old lady was not only declared a lunatic, but adjudged to have been such for the 18 months past, which covered the period in which she had given all those real estate deeds. The deeds would have been legally invalidated but for Judge Hawkins' order of vesterday, in response to Isaac Craig's petition.

In their report transmitting the estimates the commission say that owing to the fact that no appropriations were available during the preceding year, much of the time and money at the disposal of the commission during the past year was expended in repairing damages to work already begun and getting ready for beginning on new projects. For this reason not much actual progress in the systematic work of improvement is reported. The commission deprecates the action of Congress in allowing the river and harbor bill to fail, as it promises to jeopardize the works now under way and render necessary large expenditures to restore them. A strong complaint is also made against the refusal of Congress to provide for the salaries of civilian employes and traveling expenses of the commission.
